

WISDOM OF HAPPINESS | JAN. 1-4
This is medicine for the moment — a survival guide for navigating our traumatic world that feels more fractured and uncertain than ever. This powerful message of hope is delivered as a personal audience with one of the greatest living thinkers, Nobel Peace Prize winner, Tenzin Gyatso, known to billions around the world as the Dalai Lama. Speaking directly to all of us as a single global community, he shares practical wisdom for finding peace, compassion, and hope in the midst of chaos. With disarming clarity and deep humanity, he invites us to imagine — and help create — a world where compassion is activated as our strongest force for change, and happiness is within reach for everyone. (Philip Delaquis & Barbara Miller, 2025, USA, 1:30, NR)

SOULEYMANE'S STORY | JAN. 1-4
Racing through the streets of Paris making food deliveries on his bicycle, Guinean immigrant Souleymane (Sangare) is struggling to stay afloat. In two days, he has to report for an asylum application interview, where he must plead his case to an immigration officer (Nina Meurisse) who will determine his future in France. As he rides, he repeats his story. But Souleymane is not ready. Drawing inspiration from Cristian Mungiu's 4 Months, 3 Weeks and 2 Days and evoking the humanist films of the Dardennes, Boris Lojkine's urgent, propulsive third feature never leaves Souleymane's side in a deeply affecting account of the daily trials and uncertain futures faced by migrants in France and around the world. (Boris Lojkine, 2025, France, 1:33, NR)

TIMESTAMP | JAN. 7-11 - Keeping schools open in Ukraine is an attempt to recreate at least some of the normal life they had before the war — until February 24, 2022 (and in some regions even earlier, in 2014). Without interviews, narration and reenactments, TIMESTAMP provides an insight into how the war is affecting the daily lives of students and teachers. The film has a mosaic-like structure: it explores how a school functions in-person and online in these terrible times, both on and off the frontline, how day-to-day life is intertwined with constant danger. (Kateryna Gornostai, 2025, Ukraine, 2:05, NR)

URCHIN | JAN. 7-11 - On the streets of London, Mike is hustling to get by. As he struggles to reintegrate into society, shuffling between gigs as a line cook and a trash collector, he must balance a newfound sense of community with his own itch for self-destruction. (Harris Dickinson, 2025, UK, 1:40, NR)
